

GAI Resources List

General Background on AI:

- Kirsten Davis, Generative AI and Legal Writing 101 (Jan. 2024) - 1-hour webinar with basic overview of AI use for law students and concerns, available here: https://kaltura.stetson.edu/media/t/1_to9decqi
 - Coursera, Generative AI for Legal Services Primer, Instructor Mark Williams.
 - Joe Regalia, From Briefs to Bytes: How Generative AI is Transforming Legal Writing and Practice, 59 Tulsa L. Rev. 293 (2024).
 - Jonathan Choi, Amy Monahan, and Daniel Schwarcz, Lawyering in the Age of Artificial Intelligence, 109 Minnesota Law Review (2024). Study on law students use of AI for realistic legal tasks.
 - More resources: GAI Essential Reading List, curated by a wonderful group of LRW professors, and from which many of the recommendations listed here were drawn.
 - Matt Wolfe's YouTube Channel – Has tutorial information, along with updates on news/developments in AI.
 - Law Prof's GenAI Sandbox - Released by Tracy Norton, Susan Tanner, and Will Monroe “a comprehensive, evolving resource designed to empower law professors in the age of generative AI.”
-

Interactive Prompting Guides & Tools:

- Michael Murray, Prompt Engineering and Priming in Law (July 29, 2024), available on SSRN.
 - Getting Started with Prompts for Text-Based Generative AI Tools, Harvard University (Aug. 30, 2023) – Provides basic overview of inputs to consider when prompting.
 - Google's Prompt Design Guide – Covers structured techniques for improving AI responses.
 - OpenAI's Prompt Engineering Guide – Basics of crafting prompts for ChatGPT.
-

