

AALS Clinical Conference, Thursday May 12, 2022, 11:00am -12:30pm EST

Law Students and Faculty Rising to the Challenge: Lawyering in Response to Humanitarian Immigration Crises

In addition to the resources we have shared from the Penn State Center for Immigrants' Rights Clinic and from the Duke Afghan Asylum Project, please find a few more helpful links:

- Short ABA Journal piece on secondary trauma and the Afghan crisis:

<https://www.abajournal.com/web/article/negotiating-trauma-for-immigration-attorneys-afghan-evacuee-crisis-adds-pressure>

Immigrant ARC site with Lenni Benson's work: <https://www.immigrantarc.org/afghanistan> (including a webinar on other forms of relief for Afghans outside of humanitarian parole and asylum)

- ABA Training Manual for Pro Bono Attorneys
- ABA trainings and recordings:
  - ABA Training on Afghan Asylum Claims:
  - Cultural Humility and Working With Afghan Clients
  - Asylum for Afghans 201: Bars to Asylum and Potential Concerns
  - Asylum for Afghans 202: Preparing for the Asylum Interview (upcoming, recording will be made available)